Executive Summary

The California Rural Policy Task Force, working in cooperation with its member agencies and departments, is developing a directory of meeting locations in rural areas to supplement the Department of General Services directory.

The purpose of this directory is to assist State program managers in expanding outreach to rural communities. These locations can be used to hold small meetings, house program circuit riders or large technical assistance workshops.

The California Rural Policy Task Force, working in cooperation with its member agencies and departments, has developed this directory of rural stakeholder groups.

- Searchable State Grants Database: A statewide grants database whereby the public can find in a single location on the "My California" website information regarding competitive grants available through the State. In 2003, information on federal grants will also be available through the same website.
- Rural Stakeholder Directory: A directory of rural stakeholder groups which can be used by State agencies when developing mailing lists, establishing task forces, inviting participation on panels and other activities where rural areas are targeted or a true statewide geographic distribution is required.
- Centralized Information on Technical Assistance Workshops: A single-point of contact for obtaining information on technical assistance workshops sponsored by State agencies.
- Directory of Community Development Staff: A directory of the key points of contact for State program and service staff which work directly with rural communities.

It is the hope of the members of the Task Force that this tool kit will assist local communities implement their vision for a better future for their residents and businesses.

Supplemental State Building Meeting Location List

Below is a list of state offices, organized by county, that have access to meeting and conference rooms that are available to state agencies. This list is supplemental to the list prepared by the Department of General Services www.dgs.ca.gov. A majority of these offices are located in rural areas or in areas which would be convenient to people from rural areas to attend state sponsored outreach and technical assistance activities.
